DESIGN STUDIO

Project Scope

Bellora Design Studio needed a luxury visual identity that felt modern, soft, and editorial. The goal was to build a refined brand presence that communicated high-end taste through clean typography, balanced spacing, and timeless presentation.

The final direction reflects quiet luxury, designed for clients seeking curated interiors and elevated living.

Primary Logo

The goal was to create a brand that communicated calm sophistication and high-end taste through minimal design, refined typography, and timeless presentation. The final identity positions Bellora as a premium interior design studio built on quiet luxury.

Alternative Logo

The alternative logo introduces an architectural mark that reinforces Bellora's connection to home and space. The minimal line illustration adds warmth and lifestyle character while maintaining a clean, upscale aesthetic suitable for secondary branding applications.

Color Palette

A calm, modern palette built around soft neutrals with a refined lavender accent.
